

HARDING OFFERS SUBSTITUTE FOR LEAGUE TO STOP WORLD STRUGGLE

International Court to Settle Disputes Between Nations Advocated by Senator Harding

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
MARION, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Turning away from the league of nations as a failure and a wreck "beyond reconstruction," Senator Harding broke ground today for a new international peace structure he hopes to erect about the principle of a world court of justice.

As a foundation he proposed to use the better features of the present league tribunal and of the covenant of the "failed league" and he promised that from the day of his election he would give to the task his best effort in counsel with the ablest statesmen. The senator's deliverance was made in a front porch speech voicing his conception of a foreign policy. The cornerstone of his program, he said, was to regain for America the moral leadership it had lost "when ambition sought to superimpose a reaction theory of discredited autocracy on the progressive principle of growing democracy."

Would Help Mexico
To Mexico and other western republics, he declared himself ready to extend a helping hand, but he pronounced a solemn admonition to the world that all resources of the United States would guarantee protection to American life and property.

Professing also his desire to aid the stricken peoples of the old world, he recounted how this sentiment had led him to vote "with grave misgivings" for ratification of the league with restrictions. He affirmed that he would do so now under similar circumstances, but added that conditions had changed and that the league was so impotent that its agencies were not even called into use.

Had the United States assumed the obligations of article ten, he asserted, it would have been called upon to stem the Russian invasion, and could not have refused without "appearing as a waverer." He quoted a declaration of Premier Lloyd George that "it was impossible to send an international army to Poland because the European nations could not furnish the troops and the United States had withdrawn from co-operation."

Article X Again
To support his assertion that this country could not have resisted a call for help, Senator Harding quoted the statement of President Wilson that the moral obligation of the article was stronger than any legal obligation. The nominee added that if the President really wanted to help protect Poland he easily might call on congress to declare war.

Turning to his discussion of reconstruction matters, the nominee said he had "no expectation whatever" that negotiation of a separate treaty would be required to put the nation on a peace basis. Passage of a resolution declaring peace, he said, was all that was necessary to end the present "preposterous condition."

Senator Harding described the new peace association as "an international association for conference and a world court whose verdicts on justice, able questions, this country in common with all the nations, would be both willing and able to uphold." This sort of organization, he said, was in broad contrast to the council of the league, whose whole authority would be founded on force.

Stands for America's Defense
The senator also reiterated his belief that it was for American rights primarily and not to form a peace association that the nation went into the war.

"It is for that same guaranty of national life that I stand today," he continued, "and shall continue to stand so long as I live. American boys are not born to be made the sacrifices of war except when it is clearly and unquestionably for their own good."

Britten Says Demos Receive British Funds

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Congressman Britten of Illinois tonight declared that when he charged $87,000 appropriated by Great Britain in an address to the House of Commons in the Washington embassy had "found its way into the Democratic national committee," he was not accusing Sir Auckland Geddes, ambassador, of any act not in keeping with his office.

"In fact, I do not believe this money ever actually found its way to the British embassy," he said in a statement. "I do not think it ever was handled by Sir Auckland Geddes."

"If the senate committee will follow the leads I shall give, I think it will find a much larger amount is being spent in America through direct interests of the peace covenant and the British league of nations, which President Wilson brought back."

"The senate committee will follow the leads I shall give, I think it will find a much larger amount is being spent in America through direct interests of the peace covenant and the British league of nations, which President Wilson brought back."

LODGE ADVOCATES NEW AGREEMENT TO REPLACE COVENANT
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
BOSTON, Aug. 28.—The league of nations was condemned by Senator Lodge in an address at a mass meeting of the Republican League of Massachusetts today. "The league, which has got all members in it but one," he said, "has been a total failure. It has not accomplished anything."

"It may be impossible to ratify with reservations," he said. "It may be undesirable to do so, it may be necessary to enlarge and strengthen the reservations, or it may be best to put aside this ill-drawn, ill-conceived league and to take up under the auspices of the United States a new agreement, association or league composed of all the nations, under the leadership of the United States. That is a solution which commends itself, I believe, to Senator Harding."

The foreign policy of the administration was denounced by Governor Coolidge.

The policy of the administration, which their candidate is bound to continue," he said, "can only result in a continuation of the discredit of the nation abroad."

Other speakers included Helen V. Boswell, New York, and Col. Raymond Robins of Chicago.

Senator Lodge charged that the league had "never interfered with the invasion of Poland by Russia, had never interfered to hold back Turkey from Armenia, had never done anything to help Greece, and had never done anything to reach a solution of the Plunge question."

Says Europe Sick of League
"It has done nothing," he said, "and yet it is full of menace. Europe, I think, is pretty well sick of it and would be glad to be rid of it. They don't feel about our president as they did. I doubt whether it will ever be possible to make a battered hulk of Mr. Wilson's league sea-worthy."

Senator Lodge denied that the hopes of the world's peace were exclusively in the covenant.

"It is almost a sacrilege," he said, "to suggest that within the document the hopes of the world's good are tied up—in a document prepared by General Smuts and Lord Robert Cecil, with one article put in it by President Wilson, which we have from him, is the heart of the covenant."

"The league is nothing but a political alliance," he added, "all full of enforcement and very little peace in it." He was severe in his denunciation of article ten, which he said differed from every article in that it constituted "an individual obligation."

"At this moment," he continued, "one of the most valiant and brave people in the world is being invaded by Russia in an attempt to bring her back and partition her as she was partitioned in the days of the autocracy. The sympathy of every American is with the Poles."

"But if we were a member of the league under article ten, if Poland summoned us we would have to go."

Mayor Continues Major Strike
LONDON, Aug. 28.—The condition of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, this morning was reported to be worse at the Brixton jail, where he is on a hunger strike. He has been spending a very restless night.

Edmond Howard, who has several times been in the king's hospital, telegraphed the queen at Balmoral asserting that one of MacSwiney's lungs is affected and begging her intervention.

The mayor's wife, Mary MacSwiney, visited him today. The latter contradicted the report that the prison doctor was administering morphine to the mayor. He said, "I told the doctor nothing of that sort should be said and it was a lie."

The mayor's wife said her friends were against the wishes of her friends and also said that if the government wished to release my brother, it should do so before the end of the month.

"I have in my hands a packet of pasties of water of Lour and which was sent my brother by friends. He refused to take it. He said, 'I might be nourishment in them. He would bathe his forehead with the holy water.'"

Federal Agents Raid Colorado Narcotics Rings

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 28.—Whiskey and drug raids during the last week in which seventy-five arrests were made, liquor and narcotics valued at $60,000 confiscated, and scores of stills seized throughout Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, were announced today by federal prohibition agents here.

The men in custody include merchants, prominent ranchmen, a justice of the peace and hotel owners, federal officials said. They declared their investigations had revealed that the whiskey smuggled from Canada, and was distributed throughout western states by mail.

The alleged "rings" were well organized, but operated independently, the officials declared. The drug ring, they said, had its headquarters in Billings, Mont. Headquarters of the whiskey ring was in Denver, where Kemmerer and Evanston, Wyo.

The governor's principal address was at the Democratic luncheon, attended by party notables. At Gravesend the governor was compelled to cut short his remarks after a 15-minute speech.

Another brief address was delivered to a crowd at the public library.

In his luncheon address, Governor Cox reiterated his charges that contributions were being collected by Republican leaders toward a $15,000,000 "corruption fund" and promised further revelations. He also touched on world peace by America's entrance into the league of nations, and industrial problems and made plans for Americanization of foreign born citizens.

During his visit, the governor was accompanied by scores of prominent Democrats and tonight he was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the city of New York.

G. O. P. Fund Under Fire
First Governor Cox and other speeches of Democratic leaders was concentrated on the Republican campaign fund. The governor was cheered loudly as he reiterated that the contributions involved an attempt to "purchase the presidency."

"The enemy has sought to deny my charges," he said, "but none makes the same denial. Says says his fund $3,000,000. Upham said it was about $8,000,000."

"I have not yet started in the revelations," Governor Smith of New York and William G. McAdoo, who introduced Governor Cox at the Democratic luncheon, also assailed the Republican fund. The latter referred to Chairman Hays and Treasurer Upham of the Republican national committee as the "gold dust twins."

Many conditions caused Governor Cox to curtail his address at Gravesend. He was nearly an hour late, he was forced to compete with attractions of the police games. Airplanes roared over his head, forcing him to stop frequently and sound a siren.

The league issue today was a paramount in the campaign to be waged, he said, between champions of progress and reaction.

"This is a great fight," he said, "for a great principle and a fight which we will know to be a victorious fight."

Pleas for industrial peace also were made by the governor in his address at the Democratic luncheon and at Gravesend.

"We cannot have national tranquility," he said at Gravesend, "unless we have community tranquility. Public opinion has always settled industrial controversies and public opinion alone will."

The governor also, at the luncheon, gave what he termed "a word to business men." He said, "are business men to be an administration which intends to scrap the league of nations?"

Cox Says League Failure Threatens Financial Stability of World; To Regulate War Taxes

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Speeches, parades, receptions, luncheons at hotel a view of police field day games at Gravesend race track, where a huge crowd was addressed, and a dinner with party leaders tonight gave Governor Cox today the busiest day of his campaign.

Democrats Of Texas Defeat Jos. W. Bailey

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 28.—Pat M. Neff of Waco led Joseph W. Bailey of Gainesville, former U. S. senator from Texas, 58,770 votes in the contest for the gubernatorial nomination in today's Democratic run-off primary, according to a compilation of 286,224 votes from 156 counties, announced at 11 o'clock by the Texas election bureau.

On the face of partial incomplete returns, the Dallas Morning News announced Neff's nomination by a large majority.

The Texas election bureau estimated that today's primary would fall several thousand short of that in the July primary, when Bailey led Neff by 2,822 votes, and would be between 425,000 and 475,000.

Neff's chief opponent, Ralph De Palma, won the annual Elgin road race today, covering the 251 miles, 230 feet, in 3:09:44, or at an average speed of 73 1/2 miles per hour. Tommy Milton was second, his time being 3:11:47.

Third place was won by James Murphy in 3:12:47. Ralph Mulford was fourth in 3:13:59. Edward O'Donnell fifth in 3:15:50, and Percy Ford of Chicago sixth in 3:24:14. Tom Alley and Gaston Chevrolet finished seventh and eighth, but were outside the prize money.

From the first lap De Palma maintained his lead, setting the pace, although he was closely pressed at times by Mulford, Murphy and Milton. Only a few seconds separated the leaders, leaving the outcome in doubt until De Palma crossed the tape, winning the Cobe trophy, $5,000 for first prize money, and $5,000 more for leading each lap.

Only two cars stopped at the pits, one being Gaston Chevrolet, who was forced to halt in the second lap to remove a misfiring spark plug. He was then forced to stop for a second time, leaving the outcome in doubt until De Palma crossed the tape, winning the Cobe trophy, $5,000 for first prize money, and $5,000 more for leading each lap.

De Palma covered the first 150 miles at a steady speed of 71 1/2 miles an hour. The nineteenth lap he covered in six minutes and 11 seconds, breaking the course record made by Spencer Wishart, five years ago, in the race in which he was killed, of six minutes and 18 seconds. Both De Palma and Milton made the 25th lap in six minutes 13 seconds. De Palma's average of 74 1/2 miles an hour for the entire distance also established a new record, the best previous mark of 77:25 miles having been made by Gil Anderson in 1915.

By capturing second place, Milton won 250 points in the A. A. A. championship drivers' contest, and went into first place. The present standings in Milton 1,225 points, Chevrolet 1,050, and Murphy 865.
